Best for Families

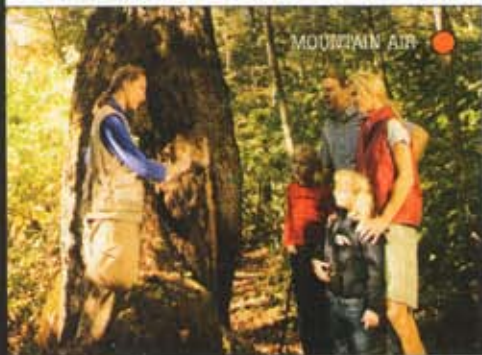

➤ While the traditional image of a golf community is inhabited by retirees, the modern reality is many of LINKS' Premier Properties offer plenty of activities for kids. Amenities like children's pools, tree houses, game rooms and kids' camps can keep younger residents occupied while their parents and grandparents can do what they love best: Play golf.

Lahontan

Truckee, Calif.

Nearby Lake Tahoe is always great for a family outing, but residents can also take advantage of Camp Lahontan, which offers seasonal recreational activities like golf, tennis, swimming, volleyball and skiing, along with picnics and barbecues.

Mountain Air

Burnsville, N.C.

Mountain Air has several family recreation areas including Club Chautauqua and Heritage Ridge Park, but kids of all ages enjoy the Point Happy Tree House with its intricate network of ladders, swings and slides.

Ocean Ridge Plantation

Sunset Beach, N.C.

Because sometimes even the beach can get monotonous, kids who tire of frolicking in the surf at the Ocean Ridge Beach Club can splash around in the community's children's water park.

Pine Canyon

Flagstaff, Ariz.

Camp Pine Canyon is a kid's dream: three pools including a waterslide, recreation area with large-screen televisions and video games, two tennis courts, and professional educators who are guides for hands-on outdoor learning experiences.

Quechee Lakes

Quechee, Vt.

If the scheduled summer-long activities aren't enough to keep kids occupied, the complimentary Quechee Lakes Concierge can organize any additional activities tailored to the entire family's needs.

Somerby

Byron, Minn.

From Memorial Day to Labor Day, the swimming pools are the social center of the community. The pool area has a slide, children's cabanas, wading pool and even poolside dining so kids can spend all day in their bathing suits.

Westhaven

Franklin, Tenn.

Residents have no trouble imagining they're staying at an oceanside resort when they visit Westhaven's pool area, which has a heated saltwater lap pool, 119-foot waterslide, sprayground and a pool just for kids 5 and under.
